Our Ray of Sunshine

Daijah Denise Jones was born to her loving parents, Andrew and Shamika Jones on December 23rd of 2002, at Methodist Sugar Land Hospital. At the tender age of 14, she went to be with the Lord, peacefully, at Texas Children's Hospital on November 1st of 2017 at 10:20 am. Daijah dedicated her life to Christ at an early age and enjoyed attending The Church at Bethel's Family, where she was active in the drama ministry. She attended school at Stafford High School where she was involved in band, culinary arts, drama, and choir. As an ode to the fighter she was, she had recently won an essay scholarship regarding her overcoming her struggles in life. This allowed her to travel to New York, which she truly enjoyed. She conquered so many obstacles in life, especially concerning her health, without any complaints. Her contagious smile and big heart were only some of the reasons many loved her. Daijah was an excellent listener; full of compassion to help others solve their own problems. It's only natural, that she aspired to be a psychologist and follow in her parents' and her brother, Devin Jones, footsteps, and attend college at Texas Southern University.

Daijah is lovingly remembered by her parents: Andrew D. Jones III and Shamika LaShae Jones, her brothers and sister: Andrew D. Jones IV, Devin Dior Jones, and Lauryn Andrenae-Michelle Jones, her grandparents: Carl and Lisa Davis, Albert and Maxine Matthews, Earline Jones, Andrew D. Jones Jr. and Barbara Jones, her great grandparents: Alex and Mae McGee, and Florence Philistin, her godparents: Dionne Randle and Randy Randle, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

Tributes

Baby Girl,

Words cannot express the emptiness we feel since we've lost you. We continually hope that we'll wake up and this nightmare will be over and you'll be standing there with your arms open asking for a hug like you did every day. This is only one of the things that we will miss so much. The love you gave everyday, that beautiful and infectious smile you always had, and those corny jokes that made us smile will always bless our hearts and our memories. Baby girl, we know you are with the Father in a much better place, and that's enough to keep our faith strong knowing that we will see you again. Until then sweetheart keep watching over us, and know that we will love you and cherish you in our hearts forever.

- Love You Always,

Mom and Dad

Daijah,

My love for you is eternal. No matter the circumstances, I will make you proud and rise above all standards. You're the key to my heart, and no, you're not far. I promise you that nothing could ever split us apart, nothing can break this bond we hold together. You will always be in my heart forever and forever.

- Love your big brother,

Devin

Dear Daijah,

I cried when you passed away,
I am still crying today.

Although I loved you dearly,
I couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest,
God broke my heart to prove to me that he only takes the best.

- Love your big sister,

Lauryn

Dear baby sister,

The connection and bond we had with each other has always been unmatched. All my life your name has been my passwords and your birthday my lock codes. You've always been my motivation and your smile has always been a trigger of happiness for me. And even though you're gone you continue to motivate me cause now I have no fear about what comes next after life or when I'll face my last days. I'm just looking forward to reuniting with my baby sister.

- Love your big brother,

CJ
